Welcome, 2017 Midwifery Cohort!

On April 10th, Birthingway welcomed a new Midwifery Cohort!

The 11 new students (pictured in the two photos below) were greeted by current students and staff as they took the first step on their journey to becoming caring, compassionate birth workers.

We could not be more thrilled to have them here!

Apply for the 2018 Midwifery Cohort Today

Join our next class of aspiring midwives! Applications for our 2018 Midwifery Cohort are now available on our website and are due by October 15, 2017.

This year, Birthingway will offer a $600 discount on our Fall Term Human Anatomy and Physiology course, and a $250 discount on our Fall Term Medical Terminology course, to any students who have turned in their application to our Midwifery Program by August 18, 2017. Anatomy and Physiology and Medical Terminology are prerequisites for the midwifery program, although they do not need to be taken at Birthingway.

Learn more and apply to our Midwifery Program here.

Lactation Consultation Cohort Postponed

Due to the limited number of applications, Birthingway has decided to postpone a new Lactation Consultant cohort until a future term.

Thank you to everyone who expressed interest in the program!

If you would like to be notified when applications are available for the next cohort, please contact lpc@birthingway.edu.

Birthingway Students Attend Statewide Midwifery Council Meeting

The statewide Oregon Midwifery Council meeting was held in Eugene on Friday, May 19th. For such a beautiful day, there was a great turnout of about 30 midwives and student midwives from all over the state. This meeting was unique in that the first half of the meeting was specifically focused on defining our vision for the future of midwifery in Oregon, which includes the future of OMC.

I personally was deeply inspired by hearing the wisdom of the midwives who have been a part of the organization for 20+ years harmoniously meld with the ideas and inspirations of the newer midwives and student midwives.

There were several Birthingway graduates and a few current students at the meeting. Statewide meetings occur three times a year and local meetings occur every other month. Check out www.oregonmidwiferycouncil.org for more information on meetings and how to become a member!

-Caley Brown, Third-Year Midwifery Student

News from the Oregon Midwifery Council

The Oregon Midwifery Council (OMC) celebrated International Midwifery Day on May 5th in Portland with a gathering of midwives and students--CPM's, naturopathic, and nurse midwives. Everyone shared a potluck dinner and celebrated great stories of midwives creating success in challenging situations, such as working with immigrants and refugees and working in places impacted by war, discrimination, and natural disaster. All were roused by the music from The Raging Grannies.

At the May Statewide Meeting they held their usual business meeting along with a special visioning process called "Appreciative Inquiry" to help deeply hear from their membership about what has brought fulfillment within the organization, along with dreams for the future.

OMC would love for students to join and contribute to the vision OMC is creating. Think about beginning to invest in your professional organization while you are growing toward becoming a midwife. Your voice matters!

Aside from their August elections, OMC will take a hiatus this summer to rejuvenate and meet again in September. The Portland peer review and business meeting will be September 8 and the Statewide meeting will be in Eugene on September 22nd. If you'd like to be included in the elections for the leadership of OMC as a nominee or as a voter, visit oregonmidwiferycouncil.org and speak with your regional representative about qualifications and positions.

Have a happy summer and see you next fall!

Join us for a free information session to explore labor and postpartum doula work!

Learn more and RSVP for “So, You Want to be a Doula?” here.

So, You Want to Be a Doula?

FREE Informational Workshop

Hear from a panel of working doulas, current Birthingway students, and our instructors as they share:

- the difference between labor and postpartum doulas
- what kind of training is involved for any doula work
- how doulas manage their work and interact with clients
- whether becoming a doula is right for you!

August 1, 6:30-8:30pm    RSVP Required

Program Info Sessions

Are you curious about the classes, programs, or culture at Birthingway but haven't had a chance to visit? Come to a Program Info Session and Tour! Birthingway holds monthly Info Sessions which include a tour of our school, overview of our classes and educational paths, and a meeting with our Program Coordinators to learn more about our Midwifery, Lactation Consultant, and Doula programs.

Tuesday August 22nd, 11:00am

2017 Plant Sale Fundraiser

Thank you to everyone who came out to our 15th annual Plant Sale and Fundraiser on April 30th! We raised about $800 to support Birthingway College. The funds raised from the event will go towards enabling Birthingway to train outstanding midwives, lactation consultants, and doulas in our unique model of care.

We could not have done this event without our longtime supporter, Polly Gottesman, and her business, Pumpkin Ridge Gardens. It was a pleasure to see Polly distributing the perfect plant along with some gardening wisdom to everyone who stopped by.

Also deserving of thanks are our thoughtful and hardworking Plant Sale volunteers, all of whom are Birthingway students, alums, or faculty: Adrienne F., Araya M., Bethany L., Dana S., Jillian D., Savannah S., Sinead O., and Trina K. Thank you to Elaura Dunning, Birthingway Outreach and Development Coordinator, who arranged the logistics, volunteers, donations, and publicity for the event.

Congratulations to Alimah H., and Christina B., who each won a raffle basket from our fundraising raffle!

Birthingway is incredibly thankful to the businesses and individuals who donated prizes in support of the raffle: Red Pig Garden Tools, Tony's Garden Center, Holly Scholles, Oregon Soap Co., Portland Roasting Coffee, Daniel McKenna-Personal Chef, and Fred Meyer. Your generosity is greatly appreciated! As always, thank you to Ben & Jerry's in Portland for welcoming us into their space for the sale.

Everyone who lent a hand, made a donation, or bought a plant helped to support Birthingway in one small way-- but the impact of that support is enormous. Thank you.

Our 2017 Donors

Thank you to the individuals and organizations that have contributed to Birthingway College in 2017! Your support makes it possible for us to continue offering the the hands-on training, crucial learning environments, and skillful mentoring needed to shape the next generation of birth workers.

Visioning Process Update

Birthingway held a community-wide Visioning Meeting on Saturday, March 18th to step back and discuss the educational, financial, regulatory, and professional challenges and opportunities we face as a college. Thank you to all who were able to attend the meeting and otherwise share important thoughts and values!

We followed the larger community-wide meeting with a more focused meeting of Board members and stakeholders who identified themselves as wanting to be core members in the visioning process. Workgroups were formed out of this meeting to explore options for Birthingway's future in three key areas: Educational Offerings, Institutional Form, and Resourcing. The workgroups are researching options in their focus area and will come back together in September to discuss their findings.

If you have questions about the Visioning Process or are wondering how to be involved, please contact Claire at claire@birthingway.edu.

Our 2017 Faculty

Welcome back to our talented team of educators in the midwifery arts and sciences!
We are lucky to have such a fantastic faculty dedicated to shaping the next generation of birth workers.

Community Updates

From the Library

The Birthingway Library recently joined DOCLINE, a service of the U.S. National Library of Medicine. If Birthingway does not have access to an article, the librarian can request it from another medical library. A PDF of the article will be emailed to the patron, usually within two weeks. This service is free to students, faculty, and community library members. Email library@birthingway.edu to request articles and with any questions about this new service.

Daina, Birthingway's librarian, was recently elected to the statewide Answerland Advisory Committee as a representative for special libraries. Answerland is Oregon's online 24/7 library chat reference service. Her two year term will begin in July.

Welcome, Tiffany!

Birthingway is excited to welcome Tiffany to the Administrative Programs Coordinator role on our staff!

Tiffany Harrison-Taylor comes to Birthingway after several years of non-profit work in all kinds of settings: film advocacy, social work, abortion access. About a decade ago, they moved from Texas to New York to study community development and government structures at NYU. Tiffany focused especially on the intersection of reproductive health equity, storytelling, and self-determination. They have since moved out west, learned to cook better, grown a lot of mint, adopted two dogs (pictured above), and lead a pretty private life with, mercifully, the ability to almost always get out of pictures.

Tiffany's excited to work with, and learn from, the Birthingway community!

Update from Birthingway's Workgroup on Equity and Inclusion

Birthingway's Workgroup on Equity and Inclusion (WEI) hosted a screening of Ava DuVerney's 13th on April 26th. Workgroup members also met in April and May to work through agendas that included making updates to our Labor Doula and Lactation Consultation tuition waiver programs. These programs seek to address barriers to entering birth and lactation professions for students who identify as a member of a group or community that is underrepresented in these fields. The workgroup will continue to meet monthly over Summer Term. Membership in Birthingway's Workgroup on Equity and Inclusion is open to current students, faculty, staff, preceptors, and Board members. Please contact Claire at claire@birthingway.edu if you have questions or would like to be involved!

Help Out in the Birthingway Garden

Birthingway is proud to support our native plant garden, which provides our community with many medicinal and educational benefits. If you find your summer slowing down, and want to get your hands dirty, feel free to stop by anytime and spend some time weeding, pruning and watering! Gloves and tools can be found on site. Just be sure to check ahead of time to make sure we're open! Call us at 503-760-3131 or email ops@birthingway.edu

Continuing Education Opportunities

Birthingway is offering several opportunities for continuing education this summer! Join us to learn more about important topics in birth work and to network with speakers, current students, alums, and professionals in the field. Opportunities are open to all and registration is required. Birthingway CEUs are available as specified.

- 6/25      Supporting Pregnant and Postpartum Women Living with Addiction
Guest Speaker Kasey Edwards, CADCA, PSS, CRM, Doula
Kasey is a recovering addict working with Project Nurture to provide peer support and doula support to women experiencing substance abuse disorders in the Portland metro area. She will address the traumatic roles that care providers may play in their interactions with pregnant and postpartum clients living with addiction, as well as how we can provide better care by simply being informed. She will discuss typical hospital care protocols as well as pain management options for mothers with a history of substance use disorders.
2 CEUs
Free to Enrolled Birthingway Students and Active Preceptors - $10 Fee for Others
Registration form included in newsletter and online here.
- 7/23      Domestic Violence Intervention During the Perinatal Year
Guest Speaker Sarah Keefe, Oregon Coalition Against Domestic & Sexual Violence
An open doula learning circle joined by guest speaker Sarah Keefe, of the Oregon Coalition Against Domestic & Sexual Violence. Sarah will speak on best practices for birth workers encountering domestic violence situations during their course of care.
3 CEUs
Free to Enrolled Birthingway Students and Active Preceptors - $10 Fee for Others
Registration form included in newsletter and online here.
- 8/18      Infant Issues Workshop
Workshop by Holly Scholles, Birthingway President
This workshop covers current issues and evidence on infant congenital heart anomalies and newborn jaundice.
4 CEUs
Free to Active Preceptors - $40 Early Registration Fee before 8/14
Registration form included in newsletter and online here.
- 8/27      Emergency Childbirth for Doulas
Workshop by Holly Scholles, Birthingway President
While the doula's scope of practice does not include providing medical or midwifery care, it is important for a doula to have the basic information to support an emergency childbirth situation in the event that appropriate medical or midwifery care is not immediately available. This two hour workshop will cover the essential skills, knowledge and abilities necessary for supporting emergency childbirth.
3 CEUs
Free to Enrolled Birthingway Doula Students - $10 Fee for Others
Registration form included in newsletter and online here.
- 9/15      Biodynamic Resuscitation of the Newborn (BRN)
Workshop by Holly Scholles, Birthingway President
BRN provider training is stand-alone workshop in how to assist with the newborn transition. Taught by a BRN Certified Instructor, this training includes both theoretical and hands-on practice components. To receive a BRN provider card, you must attend the entire workshop and pass the written and skills assessments. This training meets the requirements for Oregon licensure and NARM certification. For more information, please visit www.brn.website.

Date and Time: August 27, 2017 from 2:00pm to 5:00pm

Location: Birthingway College of Midwifery, 12113 SE Foster Rd., Portland, OR 97266

Registration Deadline: Monday, August 21, 2017 at 3:30 pm.

Cost:

- $10.00 if you register before Monday, August 21, 2017 at 3:30 pm
- $15.00 if you register after Monday, August 21, 2017 at 3:30 pm
- This workshop is FREE for currently enrolled Birthingway Doula students

Description: While the doula's scope of practice does not include providing medical or midwifery care, it is important for a doula to have the basic information to support an emergency childbirth situation in the event that appropriate medical or midwifery care is not immediately available. This two hour workshop will cover the essential skills, knowledge, and abilities necessary for supporting emergency childbirth.

3.0 CEUs are available for this workshop. Maximum 25 students.

We must receive this completed registration form and full payment to register you for this workshop.

- Please make checks payable to Birthingway College and mail to 12113 SE Foster Rd, Portland, OR 97266.
- Credit card payments are accepted through PayPal. Instructions: birthingway.edu/for-students/make-a-payment/
- If paying through PayPal, you must include a copy of your PayPal confirmation with your registration.
- If you fax your registration (fax: 503-760-3332), call 503-760-3131 to confirm that we have received it!

Refund Policy:

Written notice is required for a refund, and must be received no later than seven days before the first day of the workshop for the student to receive a 95% refund. If written notice is received after that point, 50% of the workshop fee will be refunded up to the first day of the workshop. No refund will be made on or after the day of the workshop. For more information, see our current Student Handbook and Catalog at <http://birthingway.edu/for-students/student-handbook-and-catalog/>
